

Guin, grande dame of fantasy and an author who has won many awards and fuelled many a youthful obsession with other worlds, will read from her new book, The Other Wind. Rounding out the night, David Rakoff shares some of his razor-sharp wit and keen observations of life's simple moments in Fraud.

Weyerhaeuser

This event is sponsored by Weyerhaeuser.

LEGEND WEAVERS

JOAN CLARK
C. C. (CHRIS) HUMPHREYS
JACK WHYTE
RONALD WRIGHT
MODERATED BY BRENDA BERCK

8:00 PM

WATERFRONT THEATRE

11

$12.00

Have you ever wondered how writers of historical fiction breathe new life into history and its heroes and villains? Then attend this event for lots of information and an interactive exchange about this immensely popular genre. Each of these four writers will talk about ideas, research, and challenges in blending historical fact with creative writing.

LE SALON

7:30 PM

ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE

$12.00

12

Please refer to the French-language Le Salon brochure. You can pick up a brochure or call for information either at Alliance Française or the VIVF office. Contact information can be found on pages 4 and 5.

LIVE

biennial of performance art

www.livevancouver.bc.ca

A Collaboration by The Vancouver Art Gallery, grunt gallery, RADIX, Full Circle, The Morris and Helen Belkin Art Gallery, Western Front, Video In, Artspeak, Or Gallery, Access Gallery, Helen Pitt Gallery, IMAG, Gallery Gachet, and Dynamo

INFORMATION 604.875.9516

OCTOBER 13 - NOVEMBER 30 2001

Indigo celebrates writers... and readers.

Whether you want to discover a new author or re-acquaint yourself with an old favourite, Indigo has the books you're looking for.

Coming this fall – watch for the new Indigo store on Marine Drive in North Vancouver.

Indigo

Books Music & more

www.indigo.ca

1221 Lynn Valley Road, North Vancouver (604) 904-7970