The Spanish--with their brooding passion--are among the world's most serious people. But they are also capable of great wit--consider Miro and Picasso! In honour of the Spanish wit, we gave lips to our Andalusian wool cape. (You can cover them up if you feel serious.) Here the cape is worn over very slimming black wool jersey pants. They are comfortable enough to dance the flamenco, if you feel passionate! Cape, $400., pants, $245., belt, $100.

Specialités de la Maison

We rush about like mad during the holiday season. Every year, it seems we try to do more and start earlier. We have to--else how would we get it all done? But in the midst of all the chaos, let's tuck in a few quiet times--evenings by the fire with friends--good conversation or music. For those quiet times, you will want one of our new comfortable skirts and an easy top...

The Logo skirt has large silk initials on wool challis--black satin on black, royal and teal crepe de chine on black, or candlelight satin on cream. Wear the skirt with a simple satin keyhole blouse or a velvet sweater. Finish the combination with a wide satin belt. You may choose your own initials or "LMW"!

The LMW talking skirt is black wool loden with a pocket piped in lipstick red. It's the perfect companion for our Andalusian cape. See the cover!

Pearl-studded cut-work on wool from Switzerland is available in cream or black. We've fashioned it into moderately full skirts and we team them with velvet sweaters or wool jersey ones.

The Best of Both Worlds

*It does not need to be all work and no
play or all play and no work. Our Italian wool jersey suit is proof of that!*

*Workaday, but also
fun. Black, blue,
red, navy, and khaki.
Cardigan jacket,
$325., matching
sweater, $245.,
skirt, $215.*

The Velvet Season

Nothing puts you more in the mood for a party than velvet--a pleasure to touch, a pleasure to wear. Our suit comes in, forest green, burgundy, and navy. The white cotton batiste blouse has embroidered scalloped collar and cuffs. The jacket is $385., the skirt, $175. and the blouse, $330.
