Dear Dr

— It is difficult to find words to adequately express my feelings for you in your trying position.

Glad am I to note that you have again, unaided, escaped your enemies.

Press Comments are keeping you in the glare of the spot light, and is one (unwittingly perhaps) of the reasons for repeated attempts to harm you.

You are fearlessly performing your duty, hence the attempts; there are many who need not fear molestation.

That I would love to help you in this extremity is beyond question, but, any action of mine will be misinterpreted.

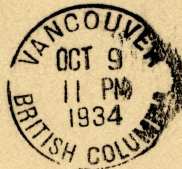

Insist upon proper protection. You are too valuable as both expert, and friend to lose in this way.

With wishes for hastly recovery

I am Sincerely yours

William F. Duighean.

Personal.
