

Inspector Vance Please Note and return.

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ESQUIMALT

Municipal Hall

ESQUIMALT, B.C.

March 4th.1935.

VANCOUVER POLICE
RECEIVED
Mar. 6- 1935.
CHIEF'S OFFICE

Col.W. W. Foster D. S. O.
Chief Constable,
Vancouver B. C.

Dear Sir:-

Recently I had occasion to phone you requesting the services of Inspector Vance, regarding a crime in this district, and which you very generously granted.

Having had a certain amount of circumstantial evidence in this particular case, Inspector Vances' evidence was invaluable, and the intention of this communication is to thank you for his services.

If ever the opportunity occurs and this Department can be of assistance, it will be a privilege to reciprocate.

Very truly yours,

(signed) H.W.V. PECKNOLD

Chief Constable

Inspector Vance

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ESQUIMALT

Please Note and

Municipal Hall

return.

ESQUIMALT, B.C.

March 4th. 1935.

W.W.F.

VANCOUVER POLICE
RECEIVED
Mar. 6 - 1935.
CHIEF'S OFFICE

Col. W. W. Foster D. S. O.
Chief Constable
Vancouver B. C.

Dear Sir:-

Recently I had occasion to phone you requesting the services of Inspector Vance, regarding a crime in this district, and which you very generously granted.
Having had a certain amount of circumstantial evidence in this particular case, Inspector Vance's evidence was invaluable, and the intention of this communication is to thank you for his services.
If ever the opportunity occurs and this Department can be of assistance, it will be a privilege to reciprocate.

Very truly yours,

(signed) H.W.V. PECKNOLD

Chief Constable

March 4th.1935.

Col.W. W. Foster D. S. O.
Chief Constable,
Vancouver B. C.

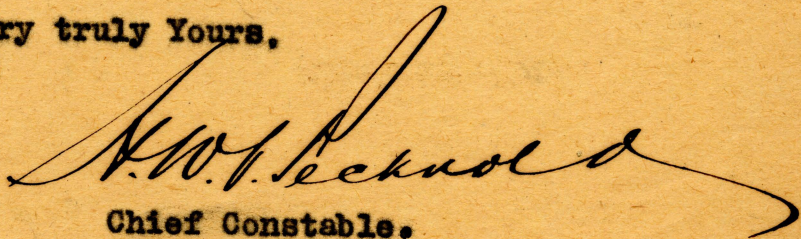

Dear Sir:-

Recently I had occasion to phone you requesting the services of Inspector Vance, regarding a crime in this district, and which you very generously granted.

Having had a certain amount of circumstantial evidence in this particular case, Inspector Vances' evidence was invaluable, and the intention of this communication is to thank you for his services.

If ever the opportunity occurs and this Department can be of assistance, it will be a privelege to reciprocate.

Very truly Yours,

Chief Constable.