Dear Member,

We have been gratified by the many kind comments which have come to us from the members of the Social Register of Canada Association since publication of the second edition.

It is felt that the addition of married children and summer residences to your entries has been of value and adds considerable interest. As, however, you were nominated to the Social Register, together with your immediate family, we feel that your married children and other adult children living away from home, are entitled to a separate listing in the Register as well as being incorporated in yours.

As listings carry on generation after generation it becomes important that their children be included and this can only be done in the parents' entry. We would, therefore, be most interested to have the names and addresses of any of your children living away from home, who do not yet have their own entries in the Social Register of Canada. Their names will then be placed before the nominations committee and biographical reference sheets will be mailed to them. We ask you to do this as soon as possible in order to facilitate the necessary editing.

At the same time please let us know of any changes that have occurred in the course of the past year that you would like incorporated in your own entries. It is only by this means that each edition of the Social Register can accurately reflect the standard of contemporary validity wherein lies its chief value to all members of the Association.

We will look forward with interest to your letters and any suggestions that you may like to pass on to us.

Yours sincerely,

B.R. Waldegrave.

Registrar.
