I went down to the other place where PC Zeele - and left them to handle Sage - a longish Constable in the Bear was guarding the Sage which had been drugged down the passage & on floor -

I went to all the rooms - and had the Woman accounted with some from the Constable of the Sage to open it - - I then opened the Sage myself in the presence of the Constable & Staff of the Store - everything in the Sage was intact - I then came back to the other side of the
