

City Clerks Office

Vancouver, B. C.

July 4th. 1916.

Mr. Vance,

City Analyst,

Police Station.

Dear Sir:-

I am instructed to notify you that the matter of making arrangements with you to retain your services was left with Alderman McIntosh and the Chief of Police with power to act, and they report that they consider it your duty to serve your Country by remaining at your present post and recommend to increase your remuneration to $175.00 per month if you remain with the City.

Yours truly,

(Signed) Wm. McQueen.

City Clerk.
